Associations

Welcome to Ottawa!

On behalf of the Board and Executive of the Federation of Ontario Law Associations, welcome to our Fall Plenary. Twice each year, our community gathers to reconnect, learn, and advocate together on the issues that matter most to Ontario's legal profession.

This plenary comes at a moment when the justice system and our profession face tremendous change, from the Law Society's ongoing reforms and the modernization of Ontario's civil rules, to the increasing role of AI in practice and the pressures of recruitment and retention across the province. FOLA is proud to be a strong and credible voice advancing these conversations.

Over the next two days, we'll share insights on key challenges in civil, criminal, family, and estates law, and explore new tools and approaches to strengthen our associations and our practices. We are especially proud to highlight our role as an intervener at the Supreme Court of Canada.

We thank all the presidents, directors, and staff of Ontario's law associations for your leadership and dedication. Together, we build the networks, share the ideas, and create the momentum that improve access to justice and strengthen our profession. And last but not least, thanks to the plenary planning committee who have helped make this all happen: Katie Black, Kelly Lovell, Curtis Pineiro, Karen Seeley, Danielle Vincent.

We look forward to connecting with you throughout this plenary, and to carrying forward our shared mission of supporting Ontario's lawyers, law associations, and the communities we serve.

Sincerely,

Allen Wynperle
